PRICE: TEN CENTS.

Mrs. Fentress' 12-1 Home Room

12-1 TAKES PRIZES

Mrs. Fentress' homeroom, 12-1, was the first class in which all the students bought subscriptions to the Bear Cub. As prizes, the room has its picture in our first issue and each member has received tickets to the Kehoe Theatre and a free lunch from the school cafeteria.

For the second and third prizes, Mrs. Lancaster's and Mrs. Brock's homerooms have received tickets to the Kehoe and Masonic Theatres.

GIBBLE AND WAYNE HIGH SALESMEN

Sue Wayne and Linda Gible, senior members of the Journalism Class, were top ad salesmen for the Bear Cub. They visited many merchants and sold $199 in advertisements.

The class as a whole sold $586 in ads and $177.40 in subscriptions.

FACULTY SELECT TRAFFIC COMMITTEE

By ARTHUR ANDERSON

Norman Kellum, President of the student council, selected Helen Swan, Nancy Ferrell, Harry Torrence and Martha Maulsby as a committee of four to submit a list of conscientious students to serve on the traffic committee for the first semester. A faculty committee composed of Mrs. Barbara Brock, Miss Rosa Asbell, Mr. Z. T. Koonce, Mrs. Margaret Willis, and Mrs. H. Lancaster chose the following students from the list submitted: Ann Robinson, Doug Sasser, A. D. Sawyer, Sue Wayne, Bob Clement, Norman Lee, Ann Moore and George Shriver, Beth Lansche and Freddie Carmichael to work with the four on the selecting committee.

The captains will wear red badges made by Mrs. Green's home economics students. Some of their jobs will include keeping students from entering the building before 8:30, keeping the traffic in the halls to the right, having students walk on the walkways, reminding students not to sit in parked cars or school buses, and preventing running to the lunchroom.

If one of these students walks up to you and tells you to do something, do what he says for the traffic captains are here for your own good and the benefit of the school.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT INCREASES

When school opened on September 9 this year, our school had an enrollment of 883 as compared with last year's 804. Since September 9, we have had an increase of 17 students which brings the enrollment up to 900. This figure is an increase of around 95 over last year's enrollment at this time.

HUGHES GIVES P.T.S.A. DEVOTIONAL

The New Bern High School P.T.S.A. held its first meeting Monday night in the school cafeteria of the new school. Presiding was Mrs. William J. Gaskins, President.

Jimmy Hughes, chaplain of the Senior Boys' Hi-Y, gave an inspiring devotion, reminding us that God has wrath as well as love.

After the welcome by Mrs. Gaskins and the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mr. Kafer reported that there is $991.79 in the treasury.

Mrs. R. P. Hunnings, membership chairman, reported that the membership drive will begin October 3 and last for two weeks. There will be an award for the homerooms having 100% membership. Passes to the Masonic Theatre will be presented to the homeroom having the largest attendance at the P.T.S.A. meetings. This month the passes went to Miss Bundy's homeroom. There was an attendance of around 300 at the first meeting.

Mr. H. J. MacDonald and Mr. W. E. Brinkley spoke to the group about the new School. Mr. Jimmy Smith showed an electrically-lighted chart of the new school made by John Mason and Bob Clement.

After the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Carl Dixon and her committee.

The parents and visitors were shown around the school by Doug Sasser, John Whitty, Evelyn Dixon, Phil Williamson, Harry Torrence, Tody Thorne, Ralph Jacobs, Jo Parsons, Norman Kellum, Billy Hendren, and Tommy Evans.

SWAN AND GIBBLE ATTEND GIRLS' STATE

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the American Legion sponsors Girls' State at Woman's College in Greensboro for two high school girls every year.

Helen Swan and Linda Gible represented our high school last year. They were chosen by the faculty on scholarship, citizenship, and good sportsmanship.

The two candidates spend a week of their summer vacation at Woman's College to study government and to enjoy swimming, bowling, movies, talent shows, a trip to Duke University, Carolina, State, and a tour of Raleigh.

The sincere sympathy of the faculty and the student body goes to Sara Kline whose father passed away on Sunday, October 3.

WELCOME TEACHERS!

To start a new school year, the New Bern High School faculty has added to their list five new teachers, a new librarian and secretary. Since this is our first edition of the Bear Cub, we should like to introduce these new teachers to the students.

To help the girls in Home Ec. I, we have Miss Sara Tisdale, a 5 foot blonde with blue eyes. Miss Tisdale was born in New Bern, N. C. and attended Salem College. This is her first year of teaching. She also teaches History I. Miss Tisdale's favorite color is blue and is delighted when someone mentions steak, her favorite dish. She likes all kinds of sports, especially waterskiing and her hobby is modeling.

Next, we have to help the freshmen and sophomores struggle along with their English, Miss Margaret Dunn. Miss Dunn was also born in New Bern and has taught in Farmville. She attended St. Mary's her first two years and Duke her last two years. Green is her favorite color and fried chicken, her favorite food. Her hobbies are traveling and reading.

Remembering all the dates in History II and IV is not so bad if you have Mrs. Pat Gainey for your teacher. Mrs. Gainey, a brunette with brown eyes, stands 5 feet 7½ inches and was born in Mt. Olive, N. C. She attended Atlantic Christian College in Wilson and taught in Pamlico and Beaufort counties before coming here. Mrs. Gainey has four children and lives in Bayboro. Her favorite color is blue and she loves steaks. Cooking is her hobby.

To complete our Industrial Arts Shop, we have a new teacher, Mr. Z. T. Koonce, from Washington, N. C. Mr. Koonce, a 6 feet 2 inch blond, with brown eyes, and attended N. C. State College. He taught in Laurinburg, N. C. before coming to New Bern. Mr. Koonce loves (Continued on page 6)

A PENNY A VOTE

A penny a vote! That's all you need to vote for the girl you want for Queen of the Follies. All homerooms voted last week for any girl they wanted to run in the contest, which will end October 14.

The money the girls receive as votes will go toward the Swimming Pool project in New Bern. Prizes will be awarded by local merchants.

The Candidates and their Campaign Managers are: Martha Jane Hammond, Tody Thorne; Doris Bland, Bobby Pate; Margaret Trader, Wilbur Jackson; Kay Ridgway, Ken Miller; Carol Ridgeway; Linda Gible; Jean Stokes, Gene Earl Worthington; Dorothy Taylor, Jerry Autry; Clare Mitchell, Freddie Carmichael; Mary Frances Ramsey, Ann Rice; Jo Kafer, Jo Parsons; Judith Dikeman, Rachel Paul; Pat Allen, Arthur Anderson; Ann Rob- (Continued on page 2)

11-1 LEADS MAGAZINE DRIVE

On September 17, the big magazine sale contest sponsored by the Junior Class got underway. On Monday, September 20, there was approximately $259 turned over to Mrs. Lila Smallwood, the class sponsor, with homeroom 11-1 leading the race. Durwood Hancock leads as high salesman of the day. James Allen Lancaster pulled ahead as high salesman on Tuesday and has held that position during the contest.

The Curtis Publishing Company, represented by Mr. Doaks, is offering many attractive prizes again this season. First prize will be a 17 Jewel Bulova wrist watch or two tickets to the Dixie Classic Basketball tournament with room and board for two nights and days. For the second prize we have the choice of an Ansco Camera set, a Deluxe fishing outfit, or two Dixie Classic tickets. The student coming in third receives an Ansco Camera and flash or one Dixie Classic ticket. At the beginning of the contest there is a mystery student drawn from the box and this student's name is sealed in an envelope and opened at (Continued on page 6)

INSTITUTE AT CHAPEL HILL

By PEGGY BLACK

New Bern High School was represented by nine students and an advisor at the Thirteenth Annual North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute held October 1 and 2 at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

Jo Kafer and Bud Bledsoe represented "The Bruin". Nell Hobby, John Whitty, Martha Jane Hammond, Pat Allen, Elizabeth Libbus, Peggy Black, and Mrs. Jim Lancaster, faculty advisor, represented The Bear Cub.

Friday's programs included addresses by distinguished journalists including Dean Norval Neil Luxon, Dean of the University's School of Journalism, and Dean Laurence Campbell of Florida State University's School of Journalism.

The institute was sponsored by the University School of Journalism, the University Extension Division, The Daily Tarheel, and the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction.

LIONS CLUB SPONSORS CONTEST

By JOHN WHITTY

The Speech and Journalism Class has enrolled in the High School World Peace Speaking Program again this year. This program, beginning its ninth year, has the subject of "The Role of the United Nations in the Building of World Peace."

The New Bern Lions Club paid the registration fee which pays for a pamphlet for each student and a gold key to the winner.

This program was founded for the purpose of encouraging North Carolina High School Students to study and discuss ways and means of building permanent peace throughout the world.

Our last year's participant won a trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City for herself and her teacher.

ALLEN ELECTED TREASURER

October 1 and 2 a meeting was held in Chapel Hill for the students that are staff members of the annual and newspaper of high schools. Mrs. Jim Lancaster, Mr. A. A. Kafer, Mr. Jimmy Smith, and Mrs. Franklin Black chaperoned the group. Nell Hobby, Jo Kafer, Peggy Black, John Whitty, Pat Allen, Elizabeth Libbus, Martha Jane Hammond, Bud Bledsoe, and Marice DeBruhl enjoyed the trip. Pat Allen was elected treasurer at the meeting.

FREE PRESS MEANS FREE PEOPLE

At no time in Man's tormented history upon this earth is a free exchange of information more urgently needed than in the midpoint of the Twentieth Century.

Yet, regrettably, such a free exchange is not possible in most of the world today. The contrary is true. In most of the world people receive only that which governments wish them to know and think.

MORE, PLEASE

Uncooperative students tie a teacher's hands behind her back. One such student can disrupt an hour-long period of teaching and leave the other students and the teacher thoroughly disgusted by the time the dismissal bell rings.

To some students, breaking up a class period is a hilarious time-passer, but to the other people involved, smart remarks to the teacher, wisecracks, whistling, singing, throwing paper, and loud popping of chewing gum are quite irritating. Schools are provided for us because the majority of us want to learn, and when one childish student interrupts our routine, it's not appreciated—especially when you're rushing to finish some work by a certain time and cannot concentrate because of one person's interference.

We all have a day once in a while when our inability to concentrate is exceeded only by our wish to be far away from anything pertaining to education, but that is no reason to bother our fellow students.

If you must be inattentive, for goodness sake do it quietly. If you are one of these people with an inferiority complex and you feel you must draw everyone's attention, wait till the bell rings, and walk down the hall on your hands. Just don't make a nuisance of yourself while the teacher is trying to do her job.

Let's start the school year off right. Teachers are hard to get these days, so take it easy on them. They are here to help you!

GARBLED GREEK

Gamma Gamma Gamma—Chorus line.

Omega Nu Pi—For Pete's sake let's have a lemon meringue for a change.

Epsilon Pi—Apple slices on the tart.

Zeta Kappa—Don't tell me that's a HAT!

Nu Mu—Kitten.

Eta Rho—The shad are running again.

Iota Eta Lambda—Wish I'd ordered mutton.

Chi Rho Gamma—Egyptian grandmother.

Iota Nu Beta—I shouldn't have done it!

WATCH YOUR STEP

Have you dared to stick your head out of the safety of a room between classes lately? Well, I advise you not to stick it out too far or you will really be "sticking your neck out." You are likely to have it taken off. If you ever get tired of trying to fight the mob and you are tired of walking, just don't walk, you'll be carried along with the crowd.

I feel sorry for anyone who falls in the midst of the rushing mob of students. He would probably be stomped and mangled to a bloody pulp.

But seriously something must be done about the traffic condition in the halls. Either the students themselves can walk more slowly and on the side of the hall they are supposed to or monitors will have to be appointed and give traffic tickets as was done last year. We don't want that, do we, students? All it takes is a little courtesy on our part. Just walk slow and easy and the halls of New Bern High School will be a safer and saner place to walk. So take it slow for my sake and yours, if you value your life. "The life you save may be your own."

FREE PRESS

free exchange of information among people, where the press is either controlled or government operated, life is hard, uncertain, progress artificially restrained, and the future of both individuals and families either wholly or substantially in the hands of rules, despots and dictators.

In America, where information has been freely exchanged since the founding of our democratic process, we as citizens enjoy more rights, more opportunities, more privileges of free citizenship than any other people in the world.

A free country and a free press are inseparable. One cannot exist without the other. That is the big lesson of history—and a lesson being confirmed before our very eyes in the Twentieth Century.

FACTS ABOUT OUR LIBRARY

Just how many students use our new library. For those of you who do not know, here are a few facts concerning this new wonder.

This spacious library will seat at least seventy-two students at one time, as compared to the ten students who could be seated in the old library.

Have you read any new books lately? Well, there are 202 new books in the library which brings the total of books to 3,269, and more new books are to be ordered. Approximately seven thousand books can be shelved with ease. Has anyone noticed the three new sets of encyclopedias just waiting for someone to use them? If you want to look at any magazines, then just go behind the counter and you will see 110 magazine shelves well stocked with old and new magazines.

Miss Johnson, the new librarian, has ordered a new card catalog cabinet and table, new book and magazine display racks, and new shelf label holder and guides to bring the equipment in the library up to par.

This marvelous place is open to students from 8:20 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. to check out books and do reference work.

I suppose everyone has noticed the attractive library assistants working in the library every period. They are just what their name implies, assistants; they are there to help you, the student. Listed below are the assistants and the periods that they work in the library:

Period I—Ann Schoppaul and Margaret Trader.

Period II—Claire Berry and Margaret West.

Period III—Kitty Ferebee and Sue Wayne.

Period IV—Louise Thomlinson and Jackie Shadle.

Period V—Jean Carol Watson and Regina Dare Hurst.

Period VI—Melba Jean Davis and Jo Ann Parsons.

Activity Period—Olean Daugherty.

In comparing N.B.H.S. library with other libraries in which she has worked, Miss Johnson says, "This library tops them all; it is so well-lighted, spacious and airy. We are working toward getting it better equipped."

Here are the opinions voiced by several of the students on the new library:

"It is the best I have seen."

"Really an improvement over the old library."

"Marvelous."

"I think it is so much nicer than the old one."

"I think the high school students are going to enjoy using this library."

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

A brand new school! What a wonderful way to start a new school year. We should all be very proud of this school. It has been the dream of the Seniors ever since we were freshmen.

It is hard to believe that the students in "little-ole New Bern" go to that beautiful modernistic building, the finest school in N. C., and the second best in the U.S.

It stands to reason that we would be proud of this school, and if you take pride in it, you naturally will want to keep it looking clean and beautiful. The rest rooms especially need more attention from us students, I've noticed. There is no sense in them not being kept fairly clean since they are swept at least once a day.

I can't think of a better way to start the new year than to adopt good study habits. That is one thing that many students neglect to do, and at the end of the week or month they find themselves drowning in pools of undone school work. Eliminate this last minute cause of heart failure by setting aside a sufficient amount of time each day for studies.

I am learning by experience (the best teacher, so I'm told) that you should be very careful in selecting the activities in which you wish to participate so that you won't have too much of a load to carry. After all, it's much better to do a good job of a few things, than a sloppy job of many.

Of course there are always a few hands a little more willing or dependable than others, and they seem to always get more than they can handle. If you are one of these people, don't forget that no matter how much you have to do, a frown doesn't make it any easier. Cooperate with your teachers and classmates. Everyone will feel a lot better—especially you.

If there's anything that should go with a new school, it's a surplus of school spirit. Students, we have a beautiful school, a wonderful and helpful faculty, a good music department, active clubs, and a hustling football team of which we should be proud. The walls of the school should be bulging with school spirit, so get out there and help your cheerleaders, talk about cleanliness in our school, be active, and don't forget to cooperate with classmates and teachers!

P.T.S.A. MEMBERSHIP

By SUE WAYNE

According to Mrs. R. P. Hunnings, membership chairman for the P.T.S.A., homerooms having 100% membership in the P.T.S.A. will be shown a movie during the fifth and sixth periods in the auditorium.

The membership drive officially began Monday, October 3 and will last for two weeks. As of Thursday, September 30, forty-five parents and students had already joined. So let's get busy, students, and get those quarters pouring in!

TODAY'S WISH

I wish I was a widdle egg

So when a mean old teacher

I'd smash me wotten widdle self
And spatter me with she.

HOMECOMING PLANS

On October 22, 1954, the New Bern Bears play the Greenville Phantoms in our annual homecoming game. The Student Government will be in charge of homecoming this year. They are planning a parade in which all clubs will be asked to have floats.

The student body will select the homecoming queens from the eight senior girls selected by senior homerooms, and the remaining seven girls will act as her court.

WILMINGTON

The New Bern High School Bears started their season by trouncing the AAA Wilmington team by a score of 27 to 15.

Bud Parker monopolized the scoring that night as he crossed the goal line three times and booted the extra points. Baches scored the other.

WASHINGTON

Bud Parker scored twice and converted twice for the Bears in Washington but it was not enough to effect a 14-14 deadlock. Although in the final portion of the game the Bears came under the shadow of the goal they were unable to score to break the tie.

ROANOKE RAPIDS

Bud Parker, George Slaughter, and John Riley Ross scored in the Roanoke Rapids game to bring about an easy win. The Bears netted only 14 points in the first half but really broke loose in the second half to gain a decisive victory by a score of 34 to 6.

JACKSONVILLE

A score of 21 to 0 was rapidly built up in the first half of the Jacksonville game, with George Slaughter, Buzz Benninghoff and Norman Kellum scoring. In the second half the Bears gave the Cardinals their only touchdown but failed to score in return. The final score was 21-7.

BEARS JOURNEY TO DURHAM

The New Bern High School varsity football team took a trip to Durham, N. C., Saturday, Oct. 1, to see the Duke University Blue Devils play the University of Tennessee Volunteers. It was a wonderful experience to see two great colleges as these to play to such a hard finish. The team saw Duke edge out Tennessee by a slim margin of 7-6. Not only did they see a fine game but also eighteen bands in full pomp and dress, it was a sight to behold. There was an estimate of 30,000 present and a cheering crowd of about 10,000. When the game had ended and they were all back on the bus ready to go home all you could hear from the boys were praise for such players as Lutz and Barger of Duke and Tracy of Tennessee. As a whole the boys and Coach Caruso and Pittman saw a fine game, a game none of our players will forget.

J. V. SPORTS

After winning a decisive victory over Jacksonville, Thursday, the Junior Varsity team is finally on their way to a victorious season.

Their first defeat came when they met Beaufort High. Many of the boys were playing in their first football game and that was probably the reason for the defeat. The final score: 38-0.

In their second game, the little Cubs were also defeated. Although our team fought hard, the final score was 12 to 0.

The third J.V. game played with Roanoke Rapids was a heartbreaker. The Roanoke Rapids J.V.'s won by one point. John Hogan scored our only touchdown.

When they met Jacksonville, the little Cubs were ready to win their first one. This spirit and determination set the team afire. The final score was 26-12 with Jack Lewis and Bobby Wizznot doing the scoring.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By JOHN RILEY ROSS

A hard worked but not weary N. B.H.S. football team looks back at a lot of hard work and a conference record of 1 win and 1 tie—forward to more hard work, a winning season and a state championship.

August 15 eighty-one ready boys reported for training and found themselves that morning practicing in full equipment and a hot sun. Excitement reigned high for the coaches and the team knew that in only three short weeks they would meet Wilmington, a strong AAA team, and that those three weeks would be packed with valuable training and hard scrimmage.

As the weeks progressed the empty places on the first team were gradually being filled by the ablest players under the watchful eyes of our coaching staff. First string players left over from last year made the job considerably easier. Donald Andrews and David Jones held positions in the line while George Slaughter and Bud Parker had sure positions in the backfield.

The vacant guard positions were filled by Kermit Guthrie and Bob Cotton and the center position was claimed alternately by David Smith and Tody Thorne.

The end positions were soon filled by Bob Clement and Blackie Stith but because of a knee injury acquired during practice, Blackie had to be replaced by Durwood Hancock until veteran end, Doug Sasser, could recover from a pre-season operation.

The empty half back spots were filled by Buzz Benninghoff and Pete Baches.

Although left out of the first offense, the remaining boys continued to practice hard and soon found that they were playing first defense or backing up the first offense or defense.

Those boys who were destined to play mainly defense were Joe Clement, Marvin Huggins, and James Parsons in the line and Norman Kellum and Durwood Hancock in the backfield.

BEARS HAVE GOOD RECORD

Having entered the long awaited Wilmington game with a determination to win, the Bears mustered all their strength to tally 27 to 15.

Our team traveled next to Washington where they fought hard but, it seemed, not with the same determination expressed against Wilmington and the game ended in a tie, 14 to 14.

Our final game, as we go to press, was the easy defeat of the Roanoke Rapids Yellow Jackets.

CO-CAPTAINS FOR N.B.H.S. DOUG SASSER - GEORGE SLAUGHTER

DOUG SASSER

GEORGE SLAUGHTER

One of the best offensive ends in the conference is New Bern's Doug Sasser. He will snag in that pass at any angle it is thrown and plow forward for that extra yardage. Doug also has done a remarkable job on defensive linebacker.

Doug is not only a fine player but a leader. This year George Slaughter and Doug serve as the team Co-Captains for the '54 season.

Our other Co-Captain for N.B.H.S. is the fullback George Slaughter. George has gained more yards rushing for New Bern than any other back on the team. He has repeated again and again his ability to drive through that line to pick up that yardage which enables the team to carry that ball deep into enemy territory.

George is looking forward to his best season. Best of luck to you and Doug from the sport staff.

THREE DOTS

Bud Parker and David Jones will not be eligible for football next year. . . . A. D. Sawyer has a younger brother, Frank, who plays on the J. V. squad. . . . Donald Andrews has played football for six years. . . . Fish Nelson, ninth grader, brother of Doug and Fish, is playing football this year. . . . Kermit Guthrie's brother, Billy, played football on the Midget team last year. . . . His brother Carl may become an athlete yet; at present he's too young. . . . JOLLY JUNK

By THE INVISIBLE IMPS

Well, kids, here we are again, and this year we're in the junk pile, collecting all the trash of the "new NBHS". We hope everyone had a real gone summer, because from now on there won't be a dull moment.

Nancy Lilly really gets around. Now she's going steady with Murray Smith.

Mrs. Brock will have grey hair before her time if Diane B. and geometry keep running a race for George Slaughter's attention. He's getting all the winks these days. Haven't the tables turned, George?

Dinner in the lunch room must not agree with Linda and Gene. They are always fussing, but it's only for a short while. They're together before the bell rings.

Phillip, you better start wearing that watch of yours. Old Father Time is going to get you in trouble some night. Right, Margaret Ann?

One Jr. Sr. date has been made well in advance. Bobby Stallings must be going for "Red" these days. Ahh! Cherry Point!

Jo Parsons has stars in her eyes. She can't see New Bern for thinking about Boston.

What a shame George Hicks is only a Sophomore! Better watch out, George, we've heard lots of girls say they are tempted to rob the cradle.

We wonder why Betty Whealton and Sue Allen always primp before 3rd period. Where there's smoke there's fire. Hmm?

Guess everyone has seen Jan Lutz's sparkler. She looks as if she's wearing her arm in a sling. Can't say we blame her, though. Good luck, you two!

Carlton Smith, the Journalism students are getting tired of tripping over you every morning.

Patricia Boyd just sits in Chemistry and waits for the mail to come (not the mail but the male who brings the mail).

Who's the little blond in Mrs. Gainey's World History class that distracts Teddy Burwell so much?

The hospital is a convenient place for making new acquaintances, huh, Peggy B.

Has anyone seen Patsy Lancaster around this year? She looks as if she's missing a right arm without Foster. Look forward to those lost weekends, don't you, Pat?

A tall, dark, and handsome boy called Larry R. has suddenly taken up with a cute blond Sophomore, Nancy M.

Boys, get busy. We have a pretty new recruit in high school from Florida, Natalie Bryson.

Ann Grady tells us that the flame of love has burned out but we wonder if maybe a spark doesn't remain.

There's a rumor around the campus that George Shriver finds a certain blond Freshman, initials B. B., very interesting.

identification bracelets. He says he's not going to buy you anymore, Nancy, so if there's a next time, better use scotch tape.

It looks like Charlotte K and Albrecht S. have taken up where they left off, so here's hoping.

Janice G. seems to be worried. She hasn't received a letter from the Navy for about two weeks.

We're sad to hear one of our old steady couples, Mercedes and Ray, have broken up. But John R. seems to be filling the empty spot for Mercedes.

There are a few steadies left from last year though. Some of them are: Martha Kay and Doug, Marie and Jimmy. Wish you luck, kids!

Allison has been traveling to Chapel Hill pretty often lately. Could it be Buzzy, Al?

Celia and Billy are always having troubles. Straighten up and fly right, you two.

Bud and Mary Frances have broken up, and they looked so cute, but maybe Washington has more influence, could that be the answer, Bud?

I haven't seen Jo and Richard together lately. But there doesn't seem to be any love lost.

Have Mary Elizabeth and Blackie really called it quits? Neither one is losing any time getting back into the swing of things!

It looks as though Bob and Martha Jane are getting friendly again. We're all for you, kids!

Connie, are you playing those love songs to Pete before Choir rehearsals start?

Slew, I hear that Washington is interested in you again? Are you going to give him a break? Or will you stick to the New Bern boys?

Ann Moore must have a new flame. She didn't lose any time getting a new campaign manager.

We hear Sylvia Styron is trying to get a flower for the Dunn game from a certain Junior.

Harry and Pat were getting along fine until a certain dance. Guess Pat will just have to learn to "bop".

Bobby Pate sure was happy this week-end when Wake Forest came home.

Aren't you getting an awful lot of letters lately, Melba D.?

Elizabeth Barnhardt and Kitty Ferebee were honored on their birthdays by a formal dance at the Woman's Club the night of September 25. The girls are now sixteen and never been kissed?

We've looked in all empty tin cans, under all the rubber tires, and have raked up all the trash we could find. BEWARE! Think twice before you throw away your old junk, because if you do, we'll dig it up!

DAILY JOY (?) RIDE

By PEGGY BLACK

As you climb merrily aboard the bus, you smile and say, "Good morning" to no one in general. Greeted by the usual silence, you plant yourself in the last vacant seat.

At the next stop you try to smile at the boarding passengers, but it looks more like you are having trouble swallowing.

Students keep piling on the bus and first one, then another, and another, and maybe another try to share your seat. The top layer is fine, but you were there first. Remember?

Your fellow-bottom-men have it soft, they hold people. You hold all their books. The biology, history, and English books are OK but have you ever seen anything as ghastly as that trig book staring you in the face? (Oh, yes, we DID have homework.)

Half an hour, ten million bumps and sixteen crescendos later you arrive at school.

When the books are claimed you realize that the sun did some up this morning and gratefully retrieve the remains of your clothes as you prepare to dig yourself out of the side of the bus.

As you fall out the door, someone smiles and says, "Good morning" to you in particular.

He was always such a good-looking fellow—but then the homeroom can always send him a "sorry about your accident" card!

MOVIE OF THE MONTH

By BETTY SUE POWROZNIK

"A Star is Born", in it one-time teenage star, Judy Garland, now 32 and out of movies for four years, not only makes a film comeback, but puts herself right in line for an Oscar.

"A Star is Born" took 10 months and 6 million dollars to make. James Mason plays the rising star's falling husband. This movie is a retake of the 1937 Hollywood drama.

For a good cry, laughter and sentimental music be sure and see "A Star is Born".

PEP NOTES

By LINDA GIBBLE

Would you like to know who's who in the red and white skirts—those girls with the vim, vigor, and vitality? Well, that's my job, to 'put you in the know' on N.B.H.S. cheerleaders.

The Varsity cheerleaders are Doris Bland, head, Ann Robinson, assistant head; Ann Grady, Martha Jane Hammond, Carolyn Arnold, Celia Hahn, Nell Hobby, Linda Gible, Sylvia Willis, Ann Moore, and Linda Lockey.

The Junior Varsity squad is Mary Elizabeth Gardner, head; Lane Aberly, assistant head; Rosalie Fox, Connie Hobby, Billie Barnes, Charlotte Kennel, Martha Bledsoe, and Shirley Brinson.

Mascots are Danny Kellum and Joanne Kennel.

The cheerleaders main project is that of printing the football programs. With the money left from ads after the printers have been paid, the cheerleaders plan to purchase skirts for the school use. This will enable all girls to go out for cheering.

Decorating goal posts is another project dedicated to those of—not, vim, vigor, or vitality—but, rather, strength and muscle-coordination.

The practices are held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at 3:15 on the patio. By this practice they hope to win the Northeastern trophy that's given to the group of cheerleaders that are the best-all-around.

These "peppy" beauties are out there on Thursday and Friday nights to lead you in our school yells and songs.

Have you met:

DORIS BLAND?

From the top of her brown hair to the bottom of her size five and a half shoe, Doris Bland, Head Varsity Cheerleader, measures five feet seven inches in height and tips the scales at 115 pounds.

After school, Doris plans to attend Wake Forest, major in English and finally to teach Junior High

MARY ELIZABETH GARDNER?

Green eyes! Brown hair! Weight 110! Height 5'3½"! Age 15! Personality—peppy and lively! These are some character traits of the Junior Varsity Head Cheerleader, Mary E. Gardner.

Among her likes are boys!! and candy, especially butter-rum life savers. Her dislikes include conceited people. Favorite foods are chicken and potatoes.

"Hey There" heads the list of her favorite songs. Dancing is her hobby which will one day be her career. Her greatest thrill was being chosen Head Cheerleader for the Junior Varsity squad.

DO YOU WANT T.V.?

After eating lunch, how would you like to relax by watching television for the rest of your lunch period? Well, it can be done! Installation of a 40-inch T.V. set in the auditorium is being planned, and there's only one thing—besides completing the Auditorium—that is holding it up—MONEY!

Besides the T.V., the school also needs another projector and reograph machine.

These three are all worthy projects for clubs and organizations. The more money donated, the sooner the whole school can benefit from them.

TUNE-IN

A pool of the students of New Bern High School showed these tunes to be favorites for this month:
"Hey There"—Rosemary Clooney.
"Sh-Boom"—The Crewcuts.
"I'm a Fool to Care"—Les Paul and Mary Ford.
"In the Chapel in the Moonlight"—Kitty Kallen.
"In a Garden of Roses"—Joni James.

MUSICAL LUNCHROOM

Yes, when the P.A. system is installed, you will be able to munch your po'k chop to the beat of the latest records!
No kiddin'! The cafeteria really has big plans for this year. You have probably already noticed many of the changes from last year's lunchroom (besides the location, that is)—the modern, convenient kitchen and serving facilities, the brand new "restaurant" tables, the "extras" such as ice cream and pop-sicles, and the many more additions which make eating in the cafeteria a pleasure. In fact, the miracle that most of the students are happy about is the fact that the knives actually cut!

Another improvement this year should soon be put into effect by the P.T.S.A. A committee of Mrs. H. H. Jones, Mrs. B. H. Oates, and Mrs. C. L. Barnhardt is looking into the matter of decorating the cafeteria with plants, for instance—wrought iron fixtures with ivy. This type of decoration should add greatly to the attractiveness of the room.

Food the Best Yet

The approximately six hundred students who eat at the cafeteria every day seem to think that Mrs. Alma Tucker and her six helpers have made the food this year the best yet.

In case you're wondering how such delicious meals are served for only twenty-five cents, the answer is government help. This help is not only given in the form of commodities, but the government also pays about 2 cents on each half-pint of milk you drink. At cost, the price of this milk is actually 7 cents, while you pay only 5 cents for it. This 2 cents difference is made up to the cafeteria.

Besides Mrs. Tucker's six adult helpers, quite a few students aid in keeping the lunchroom running smoothly. These efficient girls and boys are Peggy Benton, Cherry Gaskins, Yvonne Franks, Nancy Arthur, Wilma Blizzard, Ocala Henderson, Margaret Gatlin, Jimmy Clooins, and J. D. Arthur.

The whole staff is doing an excellent job. If you haven't eaten in the new cafeteria yet, try it. You will be pleasantly surprised!

"Why Grandma, what big brown eyes you have!"

This wolf must not have looked closely. He should have seen that Nell Tomlinson Hobby, sometimes known as Little Henry, also has brown curly hair and a quick smile that displays sparkling teeth.

The gleam in Nell's eye has been there since June 21, 1937 when she weighed less than her present 120 pounds and wasn't quite 5'5". Even then, however, she was beginning to dislike conceited people and too much homework.

Homework must not be a problem, since our gal is in her second year as a member of Beta Club and also participates in the Senior Hi-Y and Script Club. She is Senior Editor of the Bruin and Editor-in-Chief of the Bear Cub.

Nell prefers a date who is a neat dresser, has a good personality and likes to be with other kids. An ideal evening might include a football game, (she is seen at quite a few as a cheerleader) a dance, and a stop for vanilla cokes on the way home. This is the last chance for high school fellows!

The first spotlight of the year falls on a popular boy around Ole New Bern High, Norman Bryant Kellum.

"Norm" has been an active personality since his freshman year. He has been in the Latin Club, Junior Boys' Hi-Y, and Vice President of the Boys' Chorus. As a senior, he became a member of the A Capella Choir along with being on the varsity football squad and President of the Senior Hi-Y. He is best known as President of our Student Council.

Among "Norm's" dislikes are homework and exams. He lists his likes as chicken, clothes, football games, dances and Mario Lanza.

In the future Norman plans to enter Wake Forest.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

1. That this is the first issue of the Bear Cub from the new high school?
2. The scared expressions on the Freshmen's faces?
3. The strange noises coming from the Science Building during third period?
4. Jo Ann Nelson's chicken feet?
5. The bruised fingers of first year typing students.
6. John Riley's puffed head after that touchdown?
7. Bobby Stallings' red sweater?
8. The haggard expressions on the journalism students' faces?

WHAT'S NEW IN COURSES

Mr. Koonce, the Industrial Arts Course teacher, has 160 students in his five classes. The course is offered to anyone, but it is more interesting to the boys. Since school started, they have studied mechanical drawing, dimensions, and furniture cost. Recently they studied tools and now they are learning to make a bill of materials.

Both science courses, Chemistry and Physics, have been made available to all students who desire to take them. Before, they had been taught alternately—Chemistry one year; Physics, the next. While there are 2 periods of Chemistry, taught by Mrs. Brock, there is one all-male class of Physics under the care of Mr. Jimmy Smith.

New Bern High School now offers three years of Home Economics to those girls who believe that "the way to a man's heart is via his stomach." The third year was added at the beginning of this year's school term. Mrs. Greene is their instructor.

That's it!! The new courses in a new N.B.H.S.

WHAT ALL STUDENTS SHOULD KNOW

FEMININE FASHIONS

Bermuda shorts, knee socks, and butt-down collar shirts are a must for any girl's wardrobe it seems, because many New Bern High ladies, including Anne Rice, Sue Allen, and Nita Slater, have been seen in these outfits. They can be worn almost anywhere—football games, movies, etc. Kilts are not yet as popular as shorts but Adelaide Hart is one girl who makes a fetching Scotch miss. Always in style are cashmere sweaters, as long as they're cashmere. The color? Just any color is fine, and fine is how Peggy Hudson, Kitty Ferebee and Elizabeth Barnhardt and all other lucky cashmere owners look in them. Tweed is the best bet for skirts, and loafers top saddle oxfords this year. Any smart New Bern High girl knows that she must only be neat to be fashionable.

MASCULINE MODES

Pink is a color boys have really taken over this year. Jimmy Gaskins, Tessie Smith, and John Riley were seen in pink sweaters and shirts at the last football game. Suede jackets are popular with Clyde Rice, Noel Paul and many high school boys. Narrow suede belts are a favorite with Donald Andrews and Bud Parker. Last but not least, boys must have crew cuts this year.

BETA CLUB CLAIMS NEW MEMBERS

President Jimmy Hughes announced that all students who averaged 90 the last semester and who received a 2/3 vote of the club will be initiated soon. These new members can be recognized in assembly second semester as the auditorium will not be finished in time for their installation program.

BRUIN DOIN'S

Jo Kafer, Editor of this year's annual, reports that the business and feature staffs are already doing a good job on the Bruin. The business staff has sold quite a few ads and plan to hold their subscription drive soon.

The feature staff has done some good work to surprise the seniors when the annuals come out in the spring.

LIBRARY CLUB HOPES TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Officers of the Library Club are: President, Olean Daugherty; Ann Schoppaul, Sec.-Treasurer; Chairman, Merlan Phelps. Sponsor, Miss Johnson. The purpose of this organization is to promote a better understanding of the library among students. The activities planned for the Library Club are to raise money to send a group of delegates to the N.C.H.S.L.A. Convention to be held in Chapel Hill.

MONOGRAM CLUB RAISES MONEY

Any student awarded a varsity letter in any major sport is eligible for membership in the Monogram Club whose purpose is to maintain and promote good sportsmanship within the school and between competing teams. The only activity of the club is to run the concession stands at all games. Money received is used to buy the sweaters for the players.

SR. GIRLS' TRI-HI-Y PURCHASE BOOKS

Sue Wayne, president of last year's Jr. Tri-Hi-Y, presided over the meeting September 24 during activity period. The club will elect officers at the next meeting.

Mrs. Bullock, club advisor, told the group that $25 had been set aside last year to buy books and other material for a devotional shelf in the library. A committee composed of Gail Colvard, Ann Robinson, Sara Kline, Ann Grady, Adelaide Hart, and Ann Adams was appointed to work out a list of books to buy.

The following girls of Tri-Hi-Y greeted parents and teachers at the first P.T.S.A. meeting September 27: Gail Colvard, Helen Swan, Nell Hobby, Linda Gible, Jo Anne Huff, Anne Moore, and Martha Jane Hammond.

WELCOME TEACHERS:

steak and french fries, and green is his favorite color. His hobby is antique autos. Mr. Koonce's wife is our new secretary.

Mr. J. T. Hockaday, the new Junior Varsity football coach, also teaches Algebra I and Plane Geometry. Mr. Hockaday was born in Four Oaks, N. C. and he attended Atlantic Christian College. He previously taught in Benson and Fremont. Mr. Hockaday is 6 feet tall and has brown hair and green eyes. He has been married 6 years and has one son 19 months old. His favorite color is blue and he likes good to eat.

Our new Secretary is Mrs. Ann Koonce of Goldston, N. C. Mrs. Koonce is a blond, has green eyes, and stands 5 feet 5 inches. She taught the 3rd grade in Raleigh for 2 years and in Laurinburg for one year before coming here. Mrs. Koonce loves steaks and her favorite color is green. When asked about her job in the new school, she replied, "It's a wonderful place to work. I like it fine."

Miss Blonnie Johnson, the new librarian, can usually be found checking books or quieting students in the library. Miss Johnson was born in Whitel, N. C. and was librarian at the Eleanor Marshall School last year. Miss Johnson's hobbies are many, including reading, fishing, boating, and anything to do with water. Her favorite colors are blue and pink and she likes everything good to eat. She has this to say about the new school, "When we get the rest of our equipment it will be like a dream to me. This library is wonderful."

Now that all of these new teachers have been introduced, we wish to express our sincere hello and hope that all of you will like it here as much as we like having you here.

the end of the contest. If the student has sold two subscriptions, he will receive an Ansco Camera set, a fishing outfit, or two tickets to the Dixie Classic tournament.

Besides these prizes, there is a daily jackpot. One name is drawn each day. On the first day if the student whose name is drawn has sold one subscription, he or she gets the Ice Capade ticket. After the first day, one must sell two subscriptions. If no one wins the Ice Capade ticket, the next day there will be two tickets in the jackpot, etc. A total of $16.00 must be reached before any of these prizes are awarded.

For two weeks members of the Junior Class have successfully sold magazine subscriptions to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Mrs. Smallwood, who was in charge of the sale, reported that the class exceeded their goal of $1600 by $600, reaching a total of $2200.

The three high salesmen and the prizes they won are: James Allen Lancaster, two tickets to the Dixie Classics with board; second, Marion Cleland, one ticket to the Dixie Classics; third, Durwood Hancock, camera or fishing outfit.
