N. B. H. S. CELEBRATES HOMECOMING

POINT SYSTEM

That the halls of New Bern High are crowded is a mild statement; that they resemble a New York subway station describes the situation more realistically. Have you ever tried to walk UP the stairs when about three ram-bunctious freshmen, or sometimes even seniors, insist upon going DOWN the same stairs? Have you ever tried to change classes when you have to detour around a bunch of chattering "pupils" every few steps you take? Have you ever tried to teach school when there was so much noise in the halls you couldn't hear yourself think? This has been the situation existing in our high school.

The problem was turned over to our student governing body, the Student Council. This group, representing every class and club in the school, discussed and thought over plans which they thought would do away with the traffic problems. They finally decided on a point system. Each pupil was given a copy of the rules and regulations concerning traffic, noise, and conduct inside the school building. For each vio-

$500 DOLLARS

New Bern High School students have an opportunity to win that much for a single snapshot, according to a poster received this week by Principal W. E. Brinkley. (The poster can be seen on the main bulletin board.)

Altogether, 200 students are going to profit to the extent of $4,000 when the final winners are announced in the 1952 NSPA National High School Photographic Awards contest.

This competition is sponsored by the National Scholastic Press Association and has the approval of the Contest Committee of the

On Seniors

Christine Temple Daniel

Friendly? Oh, yes; attractive? —umm—yes; witty? —just listen to her. Well—who is she? Why, no other than Christine Temple Daniel.

Born on September 30, 1934 Temple is now 17—stands 5'5" tall, weighs 112 lbs., with brown hair and brown eyes.

Among Temple's likes are animals; football (when Joe plays); badminton and Coca-Cola.

She dislikes almost all vegetables, hose, dress up parties and her bad mood days.

During four years in high school, Temple has been very active—This year she is a member

Joseph Latem Pearson

It is natural to write about Temple and Joe in the same issue since we always speak of them as going together like bacon and eggs.

Joseph Latem Pearson, Junior stands 5'11". He is 17, weighs 155 lbs. and boasts brown hair and blue eyes.

Joe is now connected with the following activities; Hi-Y, Choir, Bruin Staff, and our varsity football team.

Joe dislikes silly girls, cussing, and when Temple cheats in playing badminton. Among his likes are football, Tiny (Temple's dog) and good food and sleep.

SWEETHEARTS HONORED

The big night of November 16 has come and gone and boy was it a thriller!

At the half of the Kinston-New Bern game the sweethearts of the football team were pinned with a big beautiful white chrysanthemum and red and black streamers. The sponsors were: Gloria Davis—sponsor for Tommy Smith, Donna Aycock for Bill Boyd, Karen Crawford—George Slaughter, Dot Coplon—Ken VerNelson, Margie Moore—David Ward, Virginia Williams—Bill Koonce, Ann McSorley, Al Laughinghouse, Pat Allen—Lee Atkinson, Judy Martin—Doug Sasser, Joyce Boyd—Jimmy Willis, Emily Hollister—John Hughes, Barbara Stogner—Jim Turnage, Connie Adams—Robert Rose, Pat Poole—Dick Wade, Shirley Mason—Joe Mavretic, Gary Maxwell—John Eperson, Temple Daniel—Joe Pearson, Betty Morrison—Foy Fagan, Dixie Taylor—Henry Smithwick, and Shirley Canton for Delano Sutton.

Following the pinning of the chrysanthemums the band in the formation of a heart played "Let me call you Sweetheart," in the darkness of the park with only flashlights on each hat.

The senior sponsors of New Bern High School were also pinned with chrysanthemums, the sponsors were Joyce Boyd and Bud Williams.

HOMECOMING DANCE

My goodness what a mob!! It was wonderful though, a really great homecoming!!

The dance was sponsored by the Bruin, November 16, after the New Bern vs Kinston football game. The Recreation center was decorated in red and white, as these are conveniently

JUNIOR NEWS

By Dot Coplon

Mrs. Brinson's homeroom was in charge of the assembly program Friday, November 9th, the subject of the program being "American Education Week."

Johnny Hoke, Sue Williams, Charles Schlopkoehl, Richard Lancaster, Fanny Britt, were among those participating in a very interesting radio skit.

The magazine subscription campaign ends Wednesday, November 14, and many thanks to those who co-operated so well to make it such a success. Congratulations to Ed Ferguson and Annette Lee on the prizes they merited. Those selling over a hundred dollars' worth of magazines were Annette Lee, Ed Ferguson, Joe Pinner, and Charles Schlopkoehl. We'll really show those seniors a time next June, won't we, Juniors???

The Junior class play is diligently being worked on by the actors, actresses, directors and promptors. It's shaping up nicely and we hope to show New Bern a real performance come December 13th.

THANK YOU!

As editor of the Bear Cub, I would like to thank everyone of you who helped to make the Homecoming Queen contest a success. The funds received will greatly help the Bear Cub.

I would like to thank the candidates who worked earnestly and I would also like to congratulate the queen and her attendants.

The Staff of the Bear Cub and I express our deepest gratitude to the following New Bern merchants who donated gifts to the queen and her attendants: Craven Bakery, Coplon Smith's, the Parisian, Clark's Drug Store, Belk's Department Store, and Lipman's.

By now everyone knows Mrs. Noble, our typing and shorthand teacher, who is always so very nice about typing things for us when we are in need of her.

Mrs. Noble went from dear ole N. B. H. S. to W. C. where she majored in business education. Mrs. Noble, after graduating from W. C., taught distributive education in Asheville. After teaching in Asheville, she came back to her alma mater and taught a few years. Then she stopped teaching for a while to be a house wife. She is now back with us and I know we all hope she will be with us for quite a while longer. In school this year Mrs. Noble is the sponsor for the Beta Club and from what I can understand she is a very good one.

Oh yes! There is another interest in her life. Joyce, Joyce is the 22 months old daughter of the Nobles and a mighty cute little girl, too.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

The Choir, accompanied by the Glee Club, gave their second performance in chapel Thursday and Friday singing "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" and "O Magnify the Lord."

At Flanner's Beach on November 11 a weiner roast was enjoyed by choir members and their dates.

During the Thanksgiving service Thursday morning, November 22, at the Centenary Methodist Church, the Choir rendered several selections.

The chapel programs on Thursday and Friday, December 6 and 7, will be given by the Choir.

On the night of December 17, the Choir will give a program at the Yuletide Review.

NEW BERN VS ELIZABETH CITY

Fifteen hundred spectators braved a downpour which lasted all the game, to see the New Bern Bears trample the Elizabeth City Yellow Jackets 13 to 2 on a rain-soaked field.

The two teams had just finished their preliminary exercises when the rains came. They went to their dressing rooms and waited nearly a half-hour but the rain continued, finally there was no alternative; they started playing in the downpour.

New Bern kicked off to Elizabeth City, the Yellow Jackets lost the ball on a fumble, the Bears ran 13 plays and drove 67 yards to a touchdown. VerNelson kicked the extra point. New Bern kicked off and stopped the Jackets cold for three downs, the Elizabeth City boys kicked and New Bern marched for another tally minus the extra point. The half ended 13-0. The second half was just a game of we-got-it, we kick, you-got-it, you kick, until late in the fourth when Elizabeth City scored a safety and the score moved to 13 to 2. New Bern kicked from the 20 and Elizabeth City moved the ball to the Bears ten before losing it on downs.

A bad pass from center on the 4th down caused the Bears to lose the 4th down caused the Bears to lose the ball on their own 2 yard line but a brilliant goal line stand saved the day for the Bears. The score remained 13 to 2 for the remainder of the game.

Ken VerNelson was the Bears big gun on offense while Bruny led the Yellow Jackets. Jim Turnage, Roy Riggs and Bill Koonce were the defensive standouts for the Bears.

Parent's Night was to be held this game and the half-time festivities were to be quite elaborate but the rain brought all these preparations to a dismal end.

NEW BERN VS KINSTON

The New Bern Bears lost to a powerful, experienced Red Devil 20-0 for the first defeat in six weeks. The Kinston squad stalled the Bears attack from the opening kickoff and continued to do so through the game.

Ken VerNelson and Bill Boyd constantly rammed the line for short yardage but could not break away. Quarterback, Dick Wade's passes just couldn't find a receiver and the line was unable to clear any path at all.

Early in the game Bill Koonce, the outstanding tackle for the Bears was hurt, and was forced to remain on the sideline the rest of the game. With his rugged defensive play lacking in the center of the line, the Kinston blocks had no trouble the remainder of the evening.

Ridden Kelly, Al Laughinghouse and Ray Riggs were the outstanding players on the New Bern squad while All-State, Bryant Aldridge was the big gun for Kinston. Aldridge plowed thru the New Bern line time after time for long yardage and his defensive play was just short of marvelous.

A big crowd was on hand as this was the Home-Coming game and the cheering was the best it has been all year. The student support this season has been the best in the history of New Bern High School and everyone should feel very proud to be a part of the school.

NEW BERN 8 OXFORD 14

Thanksgiving a crowd of about 2000 saw the Bears lead a rugged Oxford Orphanage team 8 to 0 for three quarters only to lose to them 14 to 8 in the closing minutes of the final quarter.

The Bears struck early in the first quarter by smearing the Oxford safety behind the goal and gained a 2 to 0 lead. Oxford kicked from the 20 and before the Bears lost possession of the ball they had scored again. VerNelson's attempted conversion was too wide and the Bears lead 8 to 0. The Orphanage team then braced and held the Bears for the rest of the first half.

The third quarter was a kicking duel between Wade and VerNelson of the Bears and halfback Davidson of the Oxford team. In the beginning of the first half quarterback Dick Wade was hurt and soon after so was fullback VerNelson. This left the Bears somewhat weakened and the Orphanage was quick to take advantage of the break. A long pass from Mumford of Oxford to Davidson set up a touchdown. The conversion was good and the Bears lead by a score of 8 to 7. The Bears marched to the Oxford 40 and then lost the ball on a fumble. Another Mumford to Davidson and an off-tackle play gave the Orphanage team a 14-8 lead.

Jimmy Willis, who replaced Wade, directed the New Bern attack to the Oxford 35 and then an intercepted pass stalled the Bears for the rest of the game.

The Bears ended their season with a 4-1-6 record.

NEW BERN 12 MOREHEAD 6

The Bears warming up for their big game with Kinston beat Morehead on the latter's field on the cold night of November 9. The cold weather made the fingers of the Bears backfield cold so that three drives were stopped near the enemy goal by fumbles. The coldness also prevented the Bear's air attack from spreading the defense although the first score was a pass from Wade to Boyd. Wade scored the second TD on a quarterback sneak from the 6 inch line. Morehead had one of the best backs that New Bern had played against all year in Steed. He was very dangerous and was a potential threat at all times. He also was outstanding line-backers on defense. The whole defense played outstanding ball and the offense was sparked by the whole backfield with Epperson, Koonce Hughes and Laughinghouse opening big holes in the line.

JUNIOR PLAY

"While Wifey's Away", a high spirited play in three acts, will be presented by the Junior class on December 13 in the Eleanor Marshall School auditorium!

It is a wholesome comedy involving a man who can inherit a fortune if he meets the requirements. The predicaments in which he finds himself make the play hilarious entertainment.

The following Juniors make up the cast of characters:

Edward Lipman—Milo Dillon
Emily Hollister—Clarice Dillon
Peg Rindflusch—Heliotrope
Claude Edwards—Chester Bivin
Marion Evans—Nina Bivin

MINNIE LOVE'S ADVICE TO THE WOE-BE GONE

Dear Minnie Love,

I am a Sophomore this year and I am not sure of a certain Junior. I think he is very cute and has a wonderful personality. I like him very much, but he doesn't seem to notice me. I will appreciate any suggestions you can give me.

Thanks a lot.

Signed
"Not Sure"

Dear "Not Sure"

My advice to you is to invite your Junior to a party when a "Girl Invite Boy" occasion arises. This should do the trick. But I also think you should find out if his attentions are on someone else special before you take any definite action.

Minnie Love

Dear Minnie,

I have been going steady with a nice boy for quite a while. I have, in this length of time, outgrown him mentally to such an extent that he bores me. How can I break up with him without hurting his feelings?

Signed,
Smarter Than He

Dear Smarter Than He,

Perhaps you are under-rating this nice boy. However, since you no longer enjoy his company, the easiest way for you to let him down is for you to be "busy" until he gets the idea.

Minnie Love.

Dear Minnie Love,

I am the prettiest girl in a certain class in high school and all the boys like me. Now here is my problem: Many girls dislike me because of my popularity, some of whom used to be my best friends. What should I do to regain their friendship???

Signed
Lonesome

Dear Lonesome,

Maybe you are self-conscious about this matter. A girl who is popular with boys may also be popular with the girls if she shows them the kind of friendship she expects; however, girls who avoid you because of your popularity do not merit your concern.

THE VACUUM CLEANER

WE PICK UP ALL THE DIRT

Greetings, guy and gals! Here is the latest dirt of N. B. H. S., and I do mean "Dirt"!

Has everyone recovered from that Kinston game? What a week end!! Wasn't the Homecoming dance wonderful? More fun!!

Two girls who were really excited about sweethearts were walking on clouds all week-end. How about it Ann McSorley and Shirley Mason?

Louie, we think it's just wonderful, that you are in love-at last. Good luck to you and Polly Larkins. She sure is a sweet gal!

Connie Adams, you certainly do get around! Better settle down to one boy, gal, before the other girls grab your "men"!

At last we have the answer to the 64 dollar question. Gene Marshburn says he has found "The Girl." Her name is Joyce and she's from Kinston (of course.) Good luck, Gene, to you and Joyce. She is a sweet girl.

Connie French, since when have you taken a fancy to air planes? Pat, Shirley Taylor and Delores Buckner seem to like them too—airplanes, that is. Wonder what the boys from Cherry Point have to say about it!!!

Between fifth and sixth period you can always find Karen and "Sweetie" on the side porch, not talking—just looking at each other. Boy, they've got it bad!

Barbara C., I see those "Storm Clouds" have passed over since George has come home. Ain't it funny what a few sweet words can do?

"Be Bop", just who is it Donna or Jeannie?

Bill Koonce and Virginia W., certainly are making a hit of their romance. Good luck to both of you! I don't know of anyone who deserves it more.

Pat Allen, how did you like being Lee's sweetheart? Kinda nice, huh?

Bill Ferebee, don't you have a girl friend? Well, I know a certain girl who surely would like

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club is happy to welcome its new members. They are: Ann McSorley, Temple Daniel, David Ward, Margie Moore, Joe Pinner, Patsy Poole, Kay McCosley, Ed Ferguson, and Dot Coplon.

At the November 15 meeting a committee composed of Gary Maxwell, Chairman; Joe Pinner, Al Laughinghouse, Margie Moore and Temple Daniel was appointed to draw up plans for a talent show to be presented at the State Convention to be held in Raleigh March 21-22.

Faye Ausley

to date you!!

Frankie D., you and Barbara C. looked mighty happy at the Rec. Center the other night. Could it be that this is love?

Robert Shriver, please when you cheer at the games, do the right cheer and stop making the cheerleaders laugh. Maybe you like one of those gals—who is she??

Ennis Jolly, is it true that Glenn Eure is coming home soon? We certainly hope so.

Winnie, you certainly have been happy lately. Are you in love again?

Dick Wade, what were you hiding your face for Saturday night at the dance when you saw Harry Shriver?

EIGHTH GRADE NEWS

The girls of Mrs. Disosway's homeroom agreed to make decorations for Thanksgiving since the boys made the drawings for Hallowe'en. They are making a sand table, with a log cabin and many Pilgrims in the scene. Congratulations, girls, it looks very nice.

The boys and girls of this room have been trying very hard to make the 8th Grade Chorus the second semester. Here's hoping they make it.

Mrs. Disosway's Homeroom Reporter, Peggy Ann Midyette.

Mrs. Willis, eighth grade class is collecting various kinds of seeds or plants for their science projects. The person with the most points for bringing these things is Chris Bremer. For English the class is divided into groups for activities of drawing posters, and illustrating verbs and adverbs.

The girls go to the Recreation Center on Thursday afternoon. The boys go on Monday. For the girls there are volley ball, basketball and tennis. The boys play football and basketball.

Our class meeting is held on Friday. The program committee for this week is Jean Cumbo, Buddy Adams, and Paul Sawyer. On Friday, November 9th, the class had a weiner roast at the Recreation Center. There

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club has been hard at work since school began on music for the Thanksgiving and Christmas concerts. So far we have mastered two songs, which we sang with the Choir in chapel, on Thursday and Friday. We will sing these again in the Thanksgiving services on Thanksgiving Day at the Methodist Church.

We are concentrating now mainly on Christmas music. Our Christmas concert will be held the 6th and 7th of December. We hope everyone will come and bring their friends.

DOWN TO THE POINT

The first thing I want to do is to express my thanks. Everybody has been "jest" wonderful about turning in news.

It seems like "Come one, come all" parties are the vogue on the station. There were three given by Carol Reeves, Chuck, and Happy Hearst. Cindy Adams also had a soc-hop. That is where everyone wears bright-colored socks and waxes someone's floor.

Well gals, it seems as if you that attended Rachel Alligood's pajama party were a sleepy crew the day after. It must have been a nice one.

FRESHMAM NEWS

The Freshmen are working hard now to become an active part of NBHS. 9-1 went all out in making posters and book covers for American Education week.

Connie Adams was the highest Freshman candidate for Homecoming queen. We want to thank her and the other Freshmen candidates for their hardwork in the campaign.

A new student, Cynthia Gordon, comes from Santa Anna, California. We hope she likes it here.

So-long for now.

Reporter Ann A.

SOPHOMORE NEWS

The Sophomores are really keeping busy this year. So far they have had two dances. The last one, an honor dance for the football players, was held at the Rec. Center on November 17. The dance was truly a great success. Cookies donated by several of the soph. were sold along with soft drinks.

The following superlatives were announced during the dance:

Most popular, Carl Coley, Harriette H.

Best looking, John Whitty, Carol Reeves.

Most original, Kenneth Brown, Ann Jordan.

Best all around, Robert Kennel, Ilo Grey McIlwean.

Best dressed, Betty Kellum, Marion Herrington.

Most studious, Joe Phillips, Jackie Rouse.

THE FRENCH CLUB

Bonjour madames et messieurs. Le Cercle francais of New Bern High is under way. They started off this year by having two bake sales held in front of J. C. Penney's. Next they sold fudge after the Kinston game.

The officers this year are Jimmy Will's. President; Annette Lee, Vice-President; Barbara Carcich, Secretary; and Frances Parker, Treasurer. The meetings are conducted in French with a program given by the program chairman, Annette Lee. There have been four meetings held so far; one being solely for the purpose of accepting a Constitution. The members are getting a paper La Jeunesse which has articles on sports, movies, books, jokes and the like.
